LIBERTY SHOW

tirely alters the program of the Liberty theater tonight. Instead of the first concert by Romanoff, the violinist, and 'the Jourdaine Operatio Quartette, a program of feature pictures will be substituted, Romanoff and the Jaurdane's making their initial appearance tomorrow,

Coming as he does, after a most satisfying recital by America's most artistic and talented woman violinist. Romanoff's performance will be watched with keen interest, his style being eccentric, while his bowing is claimed by European critics to edipse even the great Jochim's. A pediliar part of Romanoff's performance is that he seldom repeats and is sad to have an almost inexhaustible ppertoire of the various virtuosos materpieces. His engagement, at poular prices, will doubtless be apprecated by lovers of the violin, who wer unable to attend the recent concer

SHE SAVES POOR HOME, BUT PRICE IS IGH

Forced to buy her little Punclowl roperty at twice its appraised the o protect it from a group of pldblooded bidders a little old Irtugrese woman this morning bravelput p $1295 for the privilege of sting u the tiny hillside house she hazalled home for more than a decade.
